

The Mobile Tier

The mobile processes are designed for handhelds that provide a barcode scanner. The browser application connects via WLAN and HTTP requests to the server application.